A minimalist illustration featuring two stylized human figures against a solid purple background. On the left, a figure with dark blue skin and black polka-dot hair is seated, wearing a long-sleeved green and white horizontally striped shirt. On the right, another figure with dark blue skin and light green hair is standing, wearing a long-sleeved green and white vertically striped shirt. They are positioned behind a thin green horizontal line that also serves as a header bar. A rounded rectangular button on this bar contains the word "Contents".
